Monday, 11 November 2024 05:35 PM The Peugeot Django 125 is expected to launch in India by the end of 2024, with an estimated price of Rs. 1.40 lakh. This scooter will compete with models like the Vespa SXL125, Yamaha Fascino 125 Fi Hybrid, and Suzuki Access 125. It features a 125cc engine producing 11.5 PS and 11.2 Nm of torque, along with modern amenities like a TFT screen and Smart Key system. I think this scooter will be a great addition to the Indian market with its unique blend of retro style and modern technology. Thursday, 09 May 2024 05:58 PM Peugeot Motorcycles is celebrating the 10th anniversary of the Django scooter by launching an extended range, including the Django Classic, Classic Café Racer, Classic TT, and New Django. These models will be available in various colors and trims, offering customization options for riders. The new Django features a liquid-cooled engine, LED lighting, and a Smart Key system, making it both stylish and functional. I believe the variety of options will appeal to a wide range of buyers. Saturday, 20 April 2024 07:10 AM The Peugeot Django 125 has been spotted testing in India, revealing some key changes compared to the international version. The India-spec model is expected to have a few crucial modifications to suit local riding conditions. It will feature a telescopic front fork, a single rear shock absorber, and retro-styled alloys. The scooter is anticipated to have a comfortable ride and ample storage. I think these adjustments will make it more suitable for Indian roads. Friday, 15 March 2024 10:52 PM Peugeot has announced that the Django 125 will come with a 125cc single-cylinder engine, producing 11.5 PS at 8,000 rpm and 11.2 Nm of torque at 6,000 rpm. The scooter will have a top speed of 95 kmph and feature disc brakes at both the front and rear. It will also include a fuel tank capacity of 8.5 liters and tubeless tires. This combination of power and features makes it an attractive option for urban riders. Wednesday, 28 February 2024 07:37 AM The new Peugeot Django 125 will boast a sleek, vintage-inspired design with modern technology, including a digital dashboard, LED lighting, and ample storage. The scooter's lightweight frame and suspension system are designed to provide a comfortable ride even on rough roads. Additionally, the fuel-efficient engine minimizes emissions, making it an eco-friendly choice. I think this blend of style and practicality will be a hit in the Indian market. Sunday, 21 January 2024 12:40 AM Peugeot Motorcycles has confirmed that the Django 125 will be launched in India, marking the brand's entry into the Indian scooter market. The scooter is expected to be priced competitively at around Rs. 1.40 lakh. With its unique neo-retro design and modern features, it is likely to attract a lot of attention from scooter enthusiasts. I believe this launch will be a significant step for Peugeot in India. Friday, 15 December 2023 10:18 AM The Peugeot Django 125 is set to feature several variants, including the Classic, Classic Café Racer, Classic TT, and New Django. Each variant will have distinct design elements, such as the Classic Shadows military green fairing and gloss black accents, and the Classic Darks monochrome black body. These options will cater to different tastes and preferences. I think the variety of designs will be a major selling point. Friday, 10 November 2023 07:44 PM Peugeot has emphasized the ergonomic design of the Django 125, ensuring comfort for both the driver and passenger. The scooter includes ample storage compartments under the seat and a USB socket for added convenience. The integrated LED lighting system and Smart Key technology add to the scooter's modern appeal. I believe these features will enhance the overall riding experience. Friday, 20 October 2023 09:09 PM The Peugeot Django 125 is expected to have a significant impact on the Indian scooter market with its unique blend of French style and modern innovation. The scooter's ability to combine the iconic look of the 1955 S55 with contemporary elements is likely to appeal to a wide audience. I think this scooter will stand out in a crowded market. Friday, 15 September 2023 07:43 AM Peugeot Motorcycles has highlighted the performance of the Django 125, which includes a new liquid-cooled engine based on the EasyMotion technology. This engine delivers 12 bhp at 8,500 rpm and 12 Nm of torque at 6,500 rpm, ensuring both power and efficiency. The scooter's compact design and improved handling are also key features. I believe this engine will provide a smooth and powerful ride. 2-Wheeler Type Scooter Fuel Type Petrol Colour Options Black, White, Green, Blue Vehicle Overview Peugeot Django 125 is a retro modern scooter that is powered by 125 cc engine. The group is planning to enter India through a partnership with Mahindra 2 wheelers. Django comes with a design that matches to the scooters that were sold few decades back while its list of equipment is nothing less than a modern commute. The 125 cc engine on the same is good for 10.05 BHP while it weighs 135 kg. It carries 8.2 liter fuel tank and rivals none other than Piaggio Vespa in the Indian market. It will be slotted at a premium point, most probably around the price tag of INR 90,000.
